HELP, I'VE BEEN HACKED!

A Seminar on Cyber Security

Tuesday March 31, 2015

Seminar: 9:00-11:00

Lunch: 11:30-1:00

Cost: $125.00

[cost includes both seminar and lunch]

Location: Portland Airport Sheraton

If a Machine Can Be Connected to the Internet, It Can Be Hacked!

- Are you ready in the event of a cyber intrusion to your system?
- What is a hack?
- What should you do if your company is hacked?
- What should you do if your business partner is hacked?
- What are the personnel and business issues your crisis management team should consider – before and after the attack?
- How can law enforcement help?
- How do you handle the client and public relations fall-out from a successful cyber intrusion?

The CRCBFA is pleased to announce Ms. Su Ross, the Department of Justice, and the FBI as this seminar's guest speakers to answer these questions, and more!

Ms. Ross is a partner at Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp where she Chairs the Cybersecurity and Privacy Protection Practice Group. She also chairs the International Trade Practice which focuses on Customs, international trade, transportation, FDA, export licensing, corporate compliance/governance and import/export issues, along with anti-corruption and other trade compliance concerns. She is also Co-Chair of MS&K's Homeland Security Practice.

 Please RSVP online at www.crcbfa.org by Friday, March 27th
